BRITISH ARE PESSIMISTIC

British attitude over the prospects for the November conference. The program suggested by the United States has purposely been made as "elastic" as possible, it was agreed officially, in order that the assembled powers would be free to introduce any subject into the conference which in their judgment is necessary to the successful accomplishment of the purposes of the conference, either bearing on limitation of armaments or the removal of friction in the Pacific and Far East.

There is no intention, it was stated, of holding the conference hard and fast to the program announced today. The agenda is to be considered a matter of common concern and agreement and for that reason was proposed in an elastic form so that the powers addressed might be free to make any suggestions they deem desirable.

Up to date, however, neither Great Britain, Japan, Italy, France nor China, has seen fit to interpose any suggestions to the American proposals and on the contrary have indicated their approval.

Tentative Agenda.
For the first time since President Harding issued his invitation to the powers, the Washington conference today became the "lead story" in London newspapers with the publication of the tentative agenda.

The London Times, in an editorial printed before the arrival of the cablegram containing the agenda, had declared the state of public opinion in Great Britain "shows far too slight test" the significance of the Washington conference is only feebly realized here as yet."

On the other hand, the Daily Mirror, the organ of Sir David Lloyd George's personal organ, published a cablegram from it New York correspondent saying that the conference opened at Washington November 11, is merely preliminary while another meeting will be held later to accomplish the real business. The story hinted that the conference scheduled to open November 11 may be postponed.

The Central News announced, this afternoon, it had been authorized to deny the report that A. Bonar Law would go to Washington as a member of the British delegation. Mr. Law has been ill for several months.

Official Statement.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Not one dissenting voice has been raised by the powers invited to attend the forthcoming November armament conference against the agenda which the United States has proposed to follow; it was announced officially at the state department today.

On the contrary, it was stated, the subjects proposed by the United States have met with unanimous approval or the part of the powers addressed, so far as this government has been officially advised.

State department officials declared themselves at loss, today, to account for the pessimistic tone of press despatches from London reflecting the until October.

Returning members are anxious to see the tax and tariff legislation enacted into law and are awaiting impatiently final action on both bills by the Senate. The house calendar is a tree of important business. A few bills of general importance are before committees, but house leaders would not protest if all these bills should remain in committee until the general session, beginning in December.

Paves the Way.

Washington, Sept. 21.—President Harding, today, paved the way for quick action by the Senate in ratifying the peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary.

The president conferred with Senator Lodge, chairman of the Senate foreign-relations committee, who said that as soon as the treaties are received this afternoon he will endeavor to bring his committee together to consider them.

Senator Lodge said he knew of no great opposition to the treaties and was confident of their early ratification.

Favors Early Action.

Washington, Sept. 21.—President Harding favors early action by the Senate on the anti-beer bill, prohibiting the use of beer as medicine. Senator Sterling, of South Dakota, stated today after a conference with the president:

Senator Sterling, who is in charge of the anti-beer bill in the Senate, predicted that the Senate would pass the bill prior to acting on the peace treaty.

Nomination.

Washington, Sept. 21.—President Harding, this afternoon, sent the following nominations to the Senate:

To be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary, Joseph C. Grew, of Massachusetts, to Switzerland. John Dynoley Prince, of New Jersey, to Denmark.

To be chief of the bureau of engineering, navy department, Captain John K. Robinson.

To be assistant secretary of agriculture, Charles W. Pugsley, of Nebraska.

Open Battle.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Senator Pat. Harrison, of Mississippi, Democrat, returned to the Senate today his fight for open sessions and "pitless publicity" for the Washington conference on the limitation of armaments, Pacific and Far-Eastern questions.

Senator Harrison introduced a new resolution requesting the American representatives at the conference to use their influence to secure the admission of newspaper correspondents to its sessions, to record kept of its proceedings and to prevent whatever transpires from being censored or deleted.

The new grocery is being opened by H. H. Miles, of No. 281 south Vine street. Mr. Miles has been connected with the house for a reading of the August 23 journal of proceedings and a three-day recess. These three-day recesses by the house will continue ed with the Cathedral Photographic company both here and in Omaha, Nebraska, where he lived until last March.

Held in Grand Jury.—John Hardisty, Jr., this morning was arraigned in Justice G. Farr Laris' court on a charge of obstructing a rail road track and was held to the grand jury. In default of $2,000 bond he was committed to the county jail. Hardisty recently confessed to Sheriff Frank A. Washburn that he placed the telephone pole on the tracks of the Columbus, Delaware & Marion Electric company, about three miles south of town, in an attempt to wreck the limited interurban car which arrived here at 8 o'clock the night of September 3.

While the ballots were being counted a short address was made by John Paul King, the retiring president. He thanked them for their support and hoped that they would stand behind the new president and his associates as well. A committee to supervise the business end of the entertainment course was elected. It is composed of John McClellan, chairman; Lorraine Brashares, and Theodore Kerr. The tickets for the course will be on sale soon.

Ardith Monroe regained unconsciousness this morning, but could give no clew as to how the slaying had been accomplished. Police made every possible effort to obtain a statement from her, but it was evident that the attack occurred in the dark and the child was struck down before she knew what was occurring. The girl is still in a critical condition.

POLICE CHIEF MAKING FIGHT

Chicago Chief Sentenced to Jail by Court.

CROOKS ARE PROTECTED

Chief Sentence for Declaring Carl Wunderer Should Hang

Holds Attitude of Courts To Blame for Crime.

The Officer Claims Immune from Arrest.

CALIFORNIA.—Sept. 21.—Chief of Police Fitzpatrick is regarded today as a crook who got off scot-free from the sentence of five days in jail and was released upon his own bail.

World War for Compensation

In consequence because of statements made regarding the case of Carl Wunderer, which convicted of murder while an insanity hearing for appeal was being held in Judge David's court.

Judge David found that the chief was in consequence because of statements made regarding the case of Carl Wunderer, which convicted of murder, while an insanity hearing for appeal was being held in Judge

David's court.

Judge David granted a stay of committal of五 days. Chief

Fitzpatrick filed the first suit in his appeal case when he sought a defense.

"I face a jail sentence for saying that a wife-punished slayer should have," the chief's statement said.

"And criminals convicted and under-sentences to the penitentiary for crimes ranging from bank robbery to murder—each with a criminal record—walk the streets and the police department is prevented from entering the courts from arrest, letting them and sending them to jail."

Chief Fitzpatrick included in his statement a long list of offenders

he had been liberated by court:

"If Judge David is left alone," the chief continued, "he will have a lot of police in cells if criminals have not to be turned out to make room for them. I still think Wunderer should hang and if the courts

wanted him, he would have been in jail

long before he was born."

David has against me, the police of-ceries will be alive and well in their family and the two crooks that will be let out will be charged with misdeeds."

Wunderer, who maintained that he was a freshman at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Thunday, told the court he was brought to his home in this city

Saturday noon.

A Columbus psychiatrist was consulted along with a local doctor, and diagnosed his case as spinal menitis. This is still the medical diagnosis or fall on his back,

but it is not clear by the report.

Your Heating Engineer— you used to call him Steamfitter

"During the first winter nearly one-half of their number died from exposure."

—ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA

JUST three hundred years ago they landed on Plymouth Rock. They were a courageous company—as sturdy and stout as the best of us.

But nearly half of them died from exposure.

The land to which they came was the same land in which we live; the winter was no more severe than our winters now.

But nearly half of them died from exposure.

Almost no one in America dies from exposure today. And why? Because of the service of a group of quiet, unassuming men. Working without special notice or praise, the men whom you call Steamfitters and Plumbers have made the newest nation the healthiest and best-warmed nation in the world.

They have done a wonderful work for America; and yet their work is hardly more than begun. Statisticians say that 17½ million homes in America still have no heat except the heat of old-fashioned stoves.

AMERICAN RADIATOR COMPANY

Makers of the famous IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators

1848 Euclid Avenue

Cleveland, Ohio

ARCOLA— the Heating Engineer's wonderful new gift to the small home

FOR years every Heating Engineer has longed for a hot-water heating outfit that would warm the small home as perfectly as the larger heating plants of the AMERICAN RADIATOR COMPANY warm mansions, cathedrals and even the White House itself.

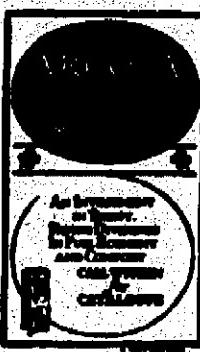

ARCOLA—a wonderful new invention developed after years of experiment—is the answer to that hope.

ARCOLA is unlike any heating equipment you have ever seen. It is radiator and boiler and hot-water heater combined to burn any kind of fuel. Set in the living-room, dining-room or kitchen, it radiates beautiful warmth to every corner. American Radiators, connected with it by small pipes carry its warmth to every room upstairs and down. The kitchen tank, too, can draw on its deep firepot, providing an abundance of hot water for washing and bathing.

See ARCOLA today in the store of any Heating Engineer displaying the red and yellow card at the right.

ARCOLA is not only a great invention for the small home; it is a gift to the small home in a very real sense.

For, in the fuel it saves, ARCOLA is guaranteed to pay for itself.

If every man who can install a heating plant should work every day, it would take a generation to give modern healthful heat to those 17½ million homes.

An almost overwhelming task! But think of the overwhelming economy! Every IDEAL TYPE A HEAT MACHINE substituted for a wasteful furnace or boiler means that one family's fuel bill is reduced one-third.

Every ARCOLA, supplanting a furnace or old-fashioned stoves, slashes the fuel bill of another home.

Of all the services rendered to the modern home there is none which pays for itself more quickly or more surely than the service of the Steamfitter and Plumber.

Call your Steamfitter or your Plumber in now and have him go over your house and report; his counsel may save you money. Make it a point to consult him twice a year as you do your Doctor or your Dentist. And do not be surprised if the old name over his store has been taken down and a new one hangs in its place.

For the men whose science and skill have robbed winter of its terrors and removed the breeding grounds of disease, have outgrown the names by which you have been accustomed to call them. Their work has become a profession: the Steamfitter and Plumber of yesterday are today the Heating and Sanitary Engineers.

Another Improvement to this Big, Busy Store
The Enlargement of our Art Department

During the more than thirty years of our business history, it has always been our aim to so improve our store as to render the very best of service to our customers.

Heretofore, when you strolled through this most popular Art Store of the city it was almost an impossibility to enjoy the full beauty of it. There are so many articles on display that it is hardly possible to see them all. In order to avoid this crowded condition in the future and to have additional space for the displaying of the many new things that are arriving daily, we have extended this department to the rear of the store, and have made another entrance on Prospect Street for the convenience of our customers.

We invite your inspection to this enlarged department and assure you that our able service will be more than pleased to make any suggestions as to gifts, embroidery work, knitting, etc.

YOUTH CONFESSES TO NUMBER OF BURGLARIES

After Having Robbed Oakland Heights Teachers.

ELLSWORTH COLEGROVE IS ARRESTED BY POLICE

Ward of Juvenile Court and Already Under Sentence to the Boys' Industrial Home.

While teachers were eating their lunch yesterday at Oakland Heights school building their upstairs desks were rifled by a boy who was later caught by the police and turned over to the juvenile court. He is Ellsworth Colegrove, a ward of the juvenile court and under suspended sentence to the boys' industrial school at Lancaster. Colegrove obtained about $50 from the Oakland Heights building, the bulk of the money in the custody of the principal, Miss Grace Baldwin, who had received it from pupils purchasing textbooks from the board of education.

The boy, when found wandering about in an upstairs room by one of the teachers who happened to be late going to lunch, said that he had come to be enrolled in the eighth grade and see about his sister being enrolled in the seventh grade. He said his name was Thomas Jenkins. He asked for the principal, who told him to be sure and come to school with his sister and that they would be taken care of in the proper way. Miss Baldwin then joined the other teachers. A short time afterward the teachers discovered they had been robbed. The police obtained $47 of the stolen money. Colegrove spent about three dollars before being apprehended.

This morning Chief J. W. Thompson called on Colegrove at the detention home and the boy confessed to having burglarized a number of places during the past few months.

Daily Proverb—"To do a kindness to a bad man is like sowing your seed in the sea."

It's manifest that if movie stars are made in the same place as marriages, some of them, at least, occasionally suffer a fall from grace.

There's a lot more permanency to the success attained by doing something than to that attained by doing somebody.

Roscoe Arbuckle may be as innocent of offense as a lamb, but something tells us, regardless of this possibility, that his name will hardly figure prominently in the future in the electric signs.

It's simply marvelous how many failures there are in this big world of ours considering the almost countless number of sure plans offered the public for a bagatelle for achieving success.

Something is always turning up to preserve the balance; as the girls over here are taking to kickers, the fashionable women of China are discarding trousers for short skirts.

Many plans have been offered to bring about a back-to-the-farm movement, but non-employment alone seems to be delivering the goods.

The average per capita income of the members of the Osage tribe of Indians is $2,500 a year. The number of professional men among them must be negligible.

We see that the Stillman case is to be reopened October 11, so there is not the slightest ground for apprehension that there will be a dearth of "news" once the world series is finished.

"I see that men's clothes are to follow the outline closely, the coming winter," remarked the fellow who lives next door on the way down town this morning, "which is welcome assurance that men are to stop short of the extremes shown by the gentler sex."

COLLEGE ENROLLMENT HEAVY.

The extent to which the young people of this country have acquired faith in the value of higher education may be gathered from college enrollments which are now being made public. Smaller colleges as well as universities which have so far been heard from report almost incredible increases.

Despite some remarkable records in the past, it is certain that the rush to college this year will be greater than ever before. Even increased tuition and living costs in college towns as a result of the crowding are no bar to the great crowd clamoring for a college education. In the schools in which it was decided to resort to stiff entrance examinations to keep down the enrollment even this has failed. The desire for higher education seems to overcome all obstacles.

For obvious reasons many educators had expected, if not a decrease, at least no great increase in enrollment; so that they are now at a loss to explain this unexpected phenomenon. Others set in it nothing more than the fact that public interest in education is being taken up at the point where it stopped when we went to war. The demand for higher education, however strong it may seem now, is greater than it would have been normally had there been no war.

A good share of the increased college education is due to the fact that the value of a college education is becoming more widely known. No doubt the raising of the standards of education even in the high schools has much to do with this rush to college. Many parents who a decade ago were satisfied with a college education for their children are no longer satisfied with this minimum. They are applying to education the slogan so familiar in the field of business, "The best is the cheapest." Certainly our present rush to college admits of no other interpretation.

France has waked up to this homely truth.

Under certain circumstances France might need to get her feet out of the Mediterranean quickly; and, conceivably, under just such circumstances, England might object—and decline to let the French feet pass Gibraltar.

"See?"

To be sure!

And the French are beginning to see, too.

So they are considering the advisability and feasibility of providing a canal from Bordeaux to the Mediterranean—a canal for the passage of the largest sea-going vessels.

French naval experts are strongly urging that this be done.

The estimated cost of the proposed canal is about a half billion dollars.

This seems like an immense sum of money to spend on a ship canal when the making of it will shorten the maritime lane from the Atlantic to the Mediterranean but little.

But France doesn't want to risk having her feet bottled up and she's right.

LIKE CLOCKWORK, GANGS
TAKE UP, PUT DOWN MAIN

from the road so that it will be entirely clear of any hard road that might be built later.

At points where the main is cut, the ditch is spaded out wider and deeper than at other places. The tools are taken out, a block and tackle attached and a team is used to pull the sections of pipe from the ditch. As soon as the line is cut there is a roar of gas which blows all of the dirt out of the main. The taking out of the old pipes and installation of new and repaired sections of the main is done in a remarkably short time.

As soon as the change is made tests of the new installation are made and if no leaks are found one end of the new main is left open, pressure applied and all dust, dirt and air in the pipe cleaned out in order to eliminate danger of the main exploding. Should air and gas reach the proper mixture in the mains a small stone rubbing against the pipes might set fire to the mixture and blow up a whole string of the main.

Welding Outfits.

Several hundred feet of pipe is uncovered at one time and before the new section is put in a string of new and repaired lengths is connected in order to make the change in the shortest time possible. Welding outfits are on the ground to repair leaks in the old pieces of pipe. These sections of repaired pipe are put down at points quite a distance removed from where they are taken up to eliminate the delays repairs would otherwise necessitate.

Officials of the Logan Natural Gas & Fuel company, which owns the lines, state that at least $1,000,000 will have been spent on repairs to the mains this year. It is estimated that approximately $45,000 a month is being spent by the company in repairing the lines.

All Coming Up.

The men employed in the work are practically all foreigners who need no coaching. They have been employed by the company so long in this work they know exactly what to do. They work like clock-work.

How to Keep Your Blood Pure and Wholesome

It is the Person With Rich, Red, Normal Blood—The Person of Health and Energy--That Meets With Business and Social Success.

A Lowered Vitality is Usually Due to Waste Products in the Blood.

When your blood is impoverished and loaded with waste products, you don't get the full strength out of your food, and as a consequence you become weak, nervous, and easily upset.

Waste products get into the blood mainly through the intestines, but there are other sources—for instance, the glands. Some glands secrete digestive juices, while others excrete waste products. If they fail to properly function, waste products accumulate.

As a result, nature strives to cast off the poisons. It may be through the skin in the form of some skin disorder, but it is not infrequent for it to settle in the muscles and joints and cause rheumatism.

For over 50 years, thousands and thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear their blood of waste products.

WITH THE PUGS

To Make a Probe.

Cleveland, Sept. 21.—Mayor William S. Fitzgerald, this morning, summoned the members of the Cleveland boxing commission before him to probe charges of failure to control boxing in the city. The recent bouts, in which Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion and Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, imposed their will upon the commission in the selection of officials, will be thoroughly probed. "If I find that the commission is failing to protect the public, I shall stop boxing entirely," the mayor said.

BASEBALL

Tagging the Bases.

The Yanks went back into the lead when they trimmed Detroit, with Harry Harper, their lone southpaw, pitching in fine form.

While blew up at Boston and Bagby failed to stop the Red Sox rally that beat Cleveland and robbed them of the lead.

Two hits were all the White Sox were able to make off the delivery of Zachary. Clyde Milan tripled with the bases full and had eight putouts.

The Athletics got a two-run lead on Shocko and Rounsell held St. Louis safe.

Kelly's twenty-third home run of the season should have won a game for the Giants at Chicago, but did not because they ran the bases poorly. A low throw by Frisch in the tenth paved the way for the winning Cub run.

Twenty-eight hits tell what kind of a pastime the Cards and Braves staged. St. Louis won it.

Smith, Lee and Koney batted hard for the Phils and the Reds bowed in defeat.

Rain stopped the Pirates and Dodgers.

With a view to get better beer in England, Birmingham University is establishing a chair of "bio-chemistry of fermentation."

VEICK ON SPORTS

New York, Sept. 21.—Old King Football is patiently awaiting his cue to stride onto the sport page next Saturday, when the 1921 season will be officially opened in all sections of the country.

It is seldom that the annual schedule calls for so many games this early in the season, and a feature of Saturday's gridiron menus lies in the number of big elevens that will swing into action.

Harvard, Yale, Pennsylvania, Penn State, Dartmouth, Syracuse and Rutgers are the important eastern teams that will open the season. Harvard will play a double-header, taking on Middlebury and Boston University. Coach Fisher will send his veterans into the games, together with the most likely looking recruits. Yale will meet Bates at New Haven, but in the case of the Bull Dogs' captain, Aldrich, at left half-back, will be the only "vet" in the lineup.

Penn will open the season against Delaware State and the Red and Blue squad is ready after a two-weeks practice season at Cape May under the experienced eye of Coach Johnny Heisman.

Other eastern games that will attract more or less attention will see Penn State taking on Lebanon Valley; Dartmouth playing Norwalk; teams—Indiana and Northwestern—will open the season. The Hoosiers meet Franklin at Bloomington and the Purple eleven is scheduled with Beloit at Evanston.

Coach Rockne's "fighting Irish" will also crack open the season, meeting Kalamazoo at Notre Dame

Best Friend

Of all your friends how many would be willing to come to your home and do a big family washing every week—fifty-two times a year.

For years the “EASY” Vacuum Electric Washing Machine has been doing the family washing for thousands of other housewives, so satisfactorily, quickly and with the least possible effort that they have voluntarily told their friends and neighbors.

As a result, many thousands of “EASY” Vacuum Electric Washing Machines have been sold by this word of mouth advertising. The copper tank has a large capacity, and is easy to keep clean. The “EASY” is rust-proof, being made of solid copper, brass, aluminum and enameled steel; is rigid in construction and without vibration. The wringer starts, stops, reverses and swings to any position instantly. Gas heater heats water to any desired temperature.

Phone for a FREE demonstration and let the “EASY” prove that it is your best friend.

NOT TO KNOW IS NO EXCUSE

To Know How to Keep Well Is Better Than to Call in a Doctor to Get Well. Sickness is a Penalty Not an Accident.

One of the best and most dependable and important preventatives of getting sick, one of the surest ways of keeping well is to form and maintain the exceedingly good habit of regular, thorough, daily bowel evacuation.

That is Nature's "best bet". You should do your best to help Nature, not hinder her in her efforts to keep you well. With the best of good intentions you may employ many methods. Strong, drastic acting medicines that force the bowels to act simply replace one evil by another evil. It may secure temporary action but it produces more than temporary irritation and other bad effects. Don't judge by promise in selecting a simple remedy to assist Nature. Performance is the true test. Take Beecham's for example.

Over 70 years ago people began to take Beecham's. Today millions of people all over the world take Beecham's, recommend Beecham's to their friends, hand the use of Beecham's down from father to son or from mother to daughter for generation after generation. That means much. You never hear any unfavorable criticism or complaint regarding Beecham's. That means much if not more. It takes real merit to withstand the tests of time and trial.

You can do much to help Nature keep you well by keeping a box of Beecham's in the house, ready for use at the first warning of disorder or disengagement. All druggists sell Beecham's—so glad to sell Beecham's.

Are you dragging around day after day with a dull, never-ceasing backache? Do you suffer headaches dizzy spells and sharp, stabbing pains; feel tired, irritable—without life or ambition? Likely then your trouble is due to kidney weakness—not hard to correct if treated promptly, but dangerous if neglected. For quick relief use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

A Marion Case

N. Smith, cement contractor, 808 south Prospect street, says: "I think the poor drinking water affected my kidneys and brought on attacks of kidney complaint. I could hardly straighten up when I stooped over, because of sharp pains across my kidneys. The secretions passed too freely and were highly colored. I had headaches and dizzy spells, too. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of the attacks."—Adv.

MARION PRESBYTERY CONDUCTS FALL MEET

Decided To Hold Spring Meet at Bucyrus.

DELEGATES ELECTED TO STATE SYNOD

Matter of Abandoned Church at Milford Center Carried Over
Till Spring.

The fall meeting of the Marion Presbytery was held Monday and Tuesday at the Spring Hill Presbyterian church, near West Liberty. Those attending from this city were Dr. L. L. Strock, Rev. J. Byers Brice and F. Cheney.

The spring meeting in April will be held at Bucyrus but a called meeting will be held at Marysville September 10 to install Rev. Mr. McCoy of Marion, Illinois, as pastor of the Marysville church.

Dr. Harr. W. Barr of Urbana, moderator of the Marion Presbytery, preached the opening sermon Monday. A conference in foreign missions was led by Rev. Albert C. Good, of West Africa. Rev. Mr. Good also gave an address at the meeting Monday evening.

Six ministers and six elders were elected delegates to the synod to be held at Cambridge in October.

The home missions commission reported that some of the home mission churches are vacant and effort will be made to secure pastors for them as soon as possible.

The matter regarding the abandoned church at Milford Center was carried over until the April meeting and the church will be vacated until some decision is taken at that time.

MT. VICTORY DOCTOR PROSECUTES ERROR

After Being Fired for Illegally Possessing Liquor.

Dr. Joseph J. Boone, prominent Mt. Victory physician found guilty recently in the court of Mayor C. C. Stevenson of illegal possession of intoxicating liquor in his bank at Mt. Victory, and fined $100 and costs will go into common pleas court to fight the case brought against him by state and federal prohibition enforcement officers, says Tuesday a Kenton News-Republican.

Dr. Boone, today, through his attorneys Stirkle and Cessna, filed in the court of common pleas a petition in error in which the State of Ohio is named as defendant in error. Hearing on the doctor's petition probably will be fixed on a date early in October.

A Few Practical Suggestions on

Heating
Stove
Values

—In the purchase of a Heating Stove there are three costs that always must be paid.

- 1.—Cost of Stove.
- 2.—Cost of Fuel.
- 3.—Cost of Repairs.

You owe it to yourself, do you not, to carefully investigate what these costs will be, covering a period of years.

In selecting a heating stove you may accurately determine in advance what these three costs will be.

There are many Round Oak features which we will be glad to introduce to you—such as Seamless One-Piece Ash Pits, an air tight stove, double firepot and boiler-iron body which mean durability for years to come.

Where Do You Eat?

Did you ever think how much finer it would be to have your meals served in a dining room that is pleasantly furnished than to "snatch a bit o' food" from the corner of the kitchen table and hurry off to work?

If your dining room furniture is growing shabby, replace it with new. The enjoyment you will receive from a well-furnished dining room will be well worth the cost of one. It is not always the expensive furnishings that are the prettiest.

Perhaps your dining room suite doesn't need replacing. A couple of carefully selected pictures will work wonders in a room that has become tiresome to you.

May we help you with your dining room problem? We'll be glad to do it. Our service is free. Our time yours for the asking.
